- short papers (only in special issues),

- conceptual papers (invited),
- literature review (invited),
- general review (invited),
- case studies (invited),
- viewpoints (invited).

It is also proposed to maintain book reviews and reports of recent events and developments and an international diary of forthcoming events.

Corresponding author

Clearly indicate who is willing to handle correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post publication. Ensure that telephone and fax numbers (with country and area code) are provided in addition to the email address and the complete postal address. Full postal addresses must be given to all co-authors. Please consult a recent journal paper for style if possible.

Original materials

Submission of a paper implies that the work described has not been published previously (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis) that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that is publication is approved by all authors and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere in the same form, in English without the written consent of the Publisher.

Editor's rights

The Editor reserves the right to return papers that do not conform to the instructions for paper preparation and template as well as papers that do not fit the scope of the journal, prior to refereeing. The Editor reserves the right not to accept the paper for print in the case of a negative review made by reviewers and also in the case of not paying the required fees if such will be fixed and in the case time of waiting for the publication of the paper would extend the period fixed by the Editor as a result of too big number of papers waiting for print. The decision of the Editor in that matter is irrevocable and their aim is care about the high contentrelated level of that journal.
