

PHOTO ESSAY AMME'2008 Gliwice - Ryn - POLAND

1. Mazuria in Poland is a beautiful region of thousands of lakes

2. Lakes in the first days of the summer 2008 are already full of yachts

4. Navigational routes are full of beautiful canals...

5. ...on which ships and yachts pass

3. Cruise ships sail on the biggest lake in Poland - Śniardwy

8. ...begins to bustle with holidays life

7. Mikołajki...

6. in ports numerous yachts wait for the beginning of the season

12. ...famous of its 14th-century Teutonic castle...

9. Mazuria is a region of cormorants, swans...

11. Among various settlements situated at lakes Ryn is distinguished...

10. ...and gulls

13. ...which was once a seat of the Brother of the Great Master of the Order...

15. ...and adopted for the modern conference centre...

14. ...today beautifully redecorated...

16. ...which became the venue of the 16th International Scientific Conference AMME'2008

18. ...characters from the epoch...

20. ...and a historical cannon, ready to fire a honorary salute wait for the Conference delegates

19. ...and in front of the Castle the Organisers (Prof. L. A. Dobrzanski and Ms M. Kraszewska, Poland)...

25. ...where they received (Ms K. Golombek, Poland)...

21. In early afternoon hours of 22nd June 2008...

17. Behind very thick walls...

23. After warm welcomes (Prof. R. Nowosielski, Poland)...

26. ...very carefully prepared and multi-volume conference proceedings

24. ...Guests went to the Conference reception...

22. ... first buses with the Conference delegates arrived

27. After making all necessary formalities...

29. ...there was time for first discussions (Prof. M. Żenkiewicz, Poland)

30. Further welcomes before a solemn Welcome Dinner with Prof. J. Lis and Prof. A. Lis, Poland...

28. ...in the hotel reception...

33. ...of the hotel restaurant...

31. ...and with Prof. J. Pacyna

34. ...over 220 conference delegates (Prof. L. Pająk, Poland) ...

32. In historic walls...

36. ...who arrived... (Prof. R. Mahdavinejad, Iran and Mr E. Solaberrieta, MSc, Spain)...

37. ...from ca.35 countries of the World

35. ...gathered in great numbers...

39. ...began...

38. Common feast...

40. ...An occasional toast was proposed by the chairman of the Conference Organisational Committee - Prof. L. A. Dobrzański, Poland)

41. In the Great Courtyard of the Castle in Ryn...

43. ...its delegates gathered (Dr M. Staszewski, Poland)...

44. ...on 23rd June 2008 at 9.00 (Ms M. Kraszewska, MA and Ms K. Golombek, MA)

45. The Conference was opened by the President of the WAMME Academy - Prof. L.A.Dobrzański...

47. Prof. M. H. Robert, Brasil achieved a Great Award of the Academic Owl...

49. ...and numerous congratulations...

50. ...and also from members of the Presidium of the Conference Sessions...

46. ...and the Opening Session was co-chaired together with him by Prof. M. H. Robert, Brasil, Prof. B. Smoljan, Croatia and Prof. J. Sokolowski, Canada

48. ...together with a statue...

51. ...and gave...

52. ...an Inauguration Lecture

53. Prof. H. Hocheng,
Taiwan, who arrived
with his wife...

54. .... received the Award of the Prof.
Fryderyk Staub Golden Owl...

55. ...and with congratulations from the
Presidium of the Conference Sessions...

56. ...after which he gave...

58. Prof. J. Adamczyk
Award for a Young
Scientist in the form of the Indian owl from Brasil...

59. ...was given to Dr P. Bala,
Poland, who made a distinguished PhD thesis under the supervision of Prof. J. Pacyna,
Poland

60. Dr P. Bala was congratulated by the Presidium of the Conference Sessions...

61. ...and then he gave the award lecture

62. The part of the Opening Ceremony
expected with anxiety...

63. ...was an hour concert...

64. ...of the String Quartet
"Akademos"...

65. ...together with accompanying musicians...

66. ...which made "String
Quartet in G major op. 18 no
3" by L. van Beethoven...

68. ...which was listened with concentration

69. The Concert met with ...

70. ...a warm reception of the Conference delegates...

67. ...and "Four Seasons" by A.
Vivaldi...

71. ...and numerous
(Dr R. La Frano, Italy and Prof. H.J. Kim, Korea)...

72. ...very sympathetic...

73. ...comments (Prof. S.
Prochorenko, Ukraine)

74. Dr J. Mazurkiewicz and Dr
M. Bonek, Poland helped to carry the awards to the laureates

75. Dr M. Bonek presented the subject matter and authors of the papers presented during the Poster Session...

76. ...during the Plenary Session, which was co-chaired by Prof. R. Nowosielski, Poland and Prof. H. Hocheng, Taiwan...

78. In the framework of the Poster Session...

77. ...with very numerous participation of the Conference delegates (Prof. T. Haga, Japan)

81. ...Director F. Brom and Dr J. Mazurkiewicz, Poland...

79. ...ca. 200 papers were presented...

80. ...and almost all conference delegates took part in discussions (Prof. Z. Rdzawski, Poland)...

82. ...Prof. B. Smoljan, Croatia and Prof. L. A. Dobrzanski, Poland...

83. ...Prof. W. Ozgowicz and Prof. J. Herian, Poland...

84. ...Dr and Mr Pawlak – father Stanislaw and his son Sebastian, Poland...

85. ...Prof. T. Haga, Japan...

88. ...Dr J. Madejski, Poland...

89. ...Prof. J. Pacyna, Poland...

86. ...and others...

87. ...Dr K. Golombek, Poland and others...

91. ...Dr A. Grajcar, Poland and others...

92. ...Prof. W. Ozgowicz and Dr S. Pawlak, Poland

90. ...Prof. D. Szwieczek, Poland and others...

95. ...Prof. B. Smoljan, Croatia...

96. ...and Prof. J. Sokolowski, Canada

94. Plenary lectures on the first day gave subsequently Prof. T. Haga, Japan...

98. The Organisers: Prof. L. A. Dobrzanski and...

97. The next plenary session was co-chaired by Prof. J. Sokolowski, Canada and Prof. Z. Rdzawski, Poland

99. ... Mr B. Tomczek, MSc, Ms A. Kloc-Ptaszna, MSc and Ms J. Domagala, MSc participated in the Session

100. The plenary lectures were given in turn by: Prof. C.I. Chang, Taiwan...

101. ...Prof. F. Davin, Switzerland...

102. ...Dr R. Lo Frano, Italy...

103. ...Dr G. Matula, Poland...

104. ...and Prof. S. Rysz, Czech Republic

105. The next session was co-chaired by Prof. T. Haga, Japan and Prof. P. Louda, Czech Republic...

107. ...Mr E. Solaberrieta, MSc, Spain...

108. ...Prof. R. Nowosielski, Poland and Dr T. Poloczek, Germany

109. There were discussions during the sessions (Dr S. Pawlak, Poland)...

106. ...and lectures were given by: Prof N. Bassim, Canada...

110. ...after them (Prof. M. Zenkiewicz and Prof. A. Buchacz, Poland)...

112. ...Prof. J. Pacyna, Poland...

111. ...Prof. N. Bassim, Canada...

114. The next session was co-chaired by Prof. S. Rysz, Czech Republic and Prof. J. Stobrawa, Poland,...

113. ...Prof. M. Surawiec, Poland

119. ...during which President of WAMME Prof. L. A. Dobrzanski...

115. ...and lectures were given among others by: Prof. A. Buchacz, Poland...

116. ...and Prof. T. Ohashi, Japan

117. The Conference was accompanied by the General Assembly of WAMME Academy...

118. ... and the annual meeting of the Metallic Materials Section of the Materials Science Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences...

120. ...presented the publication output of the WAMME Academy.....

121. ...and lately published books...

122. The diplomas of setting up ...

123. ...together with an occasional gifts were given to Prof. S. Wojciechowski – the doyen of the Polish metal scientists...

124. ...to Prof. J. Stobrawa, Poland...

125. ...to Prof. J. Pacyna, Poland...

126. ...to Dr J. Mazurkiewicz, Poland...

127. ...to Dr M. Adamiak, Poland

130. ...and the cooperation with the PAS was drunk

128. The Fellows of the WAMME Academy arrived from many countries

129. At the end the toast for the success of the WAMME Academy...

132. ...Vice-president of WAMME Prof. M. H. Robert, Brasil and Prof. J. Sokolowski, Canada...

133. ...and Prof. S. Wojciechowski

136. ....and delegates...

131. The meeting was finished with unofficial talks...

134. The Banquet on 23rd June 2008 took place on the Great Courtyard of the Castle in Byn...

137. ...from many countries of the World...

138. ...and many Polish scientific centres.

135. ...with the participation of the Presidium of the WAMME Academy...

141. ...moving the bravest ones to dance...

139. School friendships were renewed

140. The fantastic dance music was ensured by the New Transformation group of Adam Snopek...

142. ...however it was not long to wait for others

143. It was in a dignified manner...

144. ...funny...

145. ...and with a full temperament (Prof. L. Cizek, Czech Republic)

147. ...suited...

148. ...even dignified professors (Prof. J. Stabik, Poland)

149. A dance snake...

146. South rhythms...

151. ...the whole hall (Prof. G. Wróbel, Poland)...

152. ...and in a dance procession...

150. ...coiled around...

153. ...almost all banquet participants took part

154. The old Czech song "Joseph from Swamps"...

155. ...made by the Revellers' Choir (Prof. L. A. Dobrzański, Prof. L. Cizek, Mr A. Snopek and Mr H. Poloczek) created sensation.

156. The conference delegates prepared themselves for the longest night in the year – St John's Night

157. In the afternoon of 24th June 2008 they marched in a body to Ryńskie lake...

158. ...to get on a "Beldany" ship...

161. ...wise disputes...

162. ...sunbathing...

159. ...to sail over ten Mazurian lakes

160. Ca. 4-hour trip passed on singing...

163. ...documenting the nature...

164. ...waiting for the arrival to the harbour...

165. ...or simply in a bar

168. In Ruciane-Nida "At Ziutek's" the talk with Ziutek Głowczyński began the solemn St John's dinner ...

169. Guests...

166. The ship was navigated through the biggest in Poland lake - Śniardwy by the outstanding "captain" (Prof. L. A. Dobrzański)...

171. ...having a liking of fresh fish from the lake...

167. ...and then a watch was come off

170. ...ate one's fill...

173. ...in order to leave that nice village already after midnight

172. ...then under Mr H. Poloczek's commend they sang sailing shanties...

174. On the last day of the Conference the Plenary Session was co-chaired by Prof. J. Pacyna and Prof. J. Stahlik, Poland....

175. ...and the next plenary lectures of the G.S. Cellini, Italy

176. ...Prof. H.J. Kim, Korea...

177. ...Prof. J. Stobrawa, Poland...

178. ...Prof. J. Okrajni, Poland...

180. ...met with a vivid reaction of the audience

179. ...Prof. B. Wendler, Poland...

181. The Conference was solemnly closed by Prof. L. A. Dobrzanski – the President of the WAMME Academy...

182. ...thanking the Organisational Team...

185. Prof. M. H. Robert, Brazil – Vice-president of WAMME Academy thanked and congratulated the Conference Organisers

183. ...and the Conference Delegates

184. The diploma and medal of the Fellow of the WAMME Academy was given to Prof. B. Wendler

186. The individual thanks to the closest co-workers...

187. ...last talks...

188. ...exchange of wishes...

189. ...congratulations...

191. The Castle Guests were farewelled...

192. ...by characters...

193. ...from the epoch

190. ...and last farewells remained

194. Packed materials were transported to buses...

195. ...and Guests left hospitable Ryn and Mazuria.

In the given photo essay pictures were made by Mr Tomasz Kruczyk, MSc.

The Organising Committee of AMME'2008 conference thanks Authors, Speakers, Participants of the Poster Sessions and other conference Delegates for the active participation in the Conference.

The next 17th International Scientific Conference is planned to take place in June 2009 in Kazimierz Dolny upon Vistula river in Poland.