

PHOTO ESSAY

AMME 2010

Wieliczka • Zakopane

1. The Mercure Kasprowy Hotel in Zakopane, Poland became again the seat of AMME Conference

2. The first guests arrived on 13th June 2010

3. and among them there were: Prof. Emin Bayraktar (France),

4. Prof. Maria Helena Robert (Brazil),

5. Prof. Mirko Sokovic and Prof. Borut Kosce (Slovenia)

6. and Prof. Andrzej Jus (Poland)

7. Prof. Leszek Dobrzański - the chairman of the Programme and Organising Committee of AMME 2010 Conference welcomed guests...

9. The AMME2010 Conference was opened by Prof. Leszek A. Dobrzański on 14th June 2010

10. during the Solemn Opening Ceremony in the beautiful Haluska Chamber of the Wieliczka Salt Mine inscribed in UNESCO's First World List of Cultural and Natural Heritage.

8. ...from ca. 30 countries at the Cocktail and Welcome Dinner

11. During the Ceremony the Fryderyk Staub Golden Owl Awards for 2010 were received by Prof. Mirko Sokovic (Slovenia)...

14. then the opening lectures were given by Prof. Mirko Sokovic...

12. ...and Prof. Zinovij Stotsko (Ukraine)

13. Moreover, Dr Rafal Babilas (Poland) achieved the honorary award of the Prof. Jan Adamczyk of the World Academy of Materials and Manufacturing Engineering for a young scientist for a distinguished PhD or DSc thesis for 2010

15. ...and Dr Rafal Babilas.

17. and Multicamerata - String quintet.

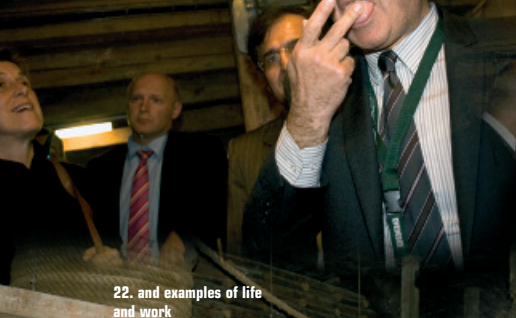

16. In the next part of the Ceremony the beautiful Polish music of Chopin sounded, played by Wojciech Waleczek - piano

18. The conference delegates went to visit the underground city with an extensive infrastructure,

19. tasting salt from the walls - Prof. Emin Bayraktar (France),

20. Dr Ramezan Ali Mahdaviad (Iran)

21. and admiring the beautiful salt sculptures

22. and examples of life and work

23. developed since the Middle Ages,

24. and finally making the group photo

25. in the beautiful 19th-century St. Kinga's Chapel

26. and reaching the aim of the trip after 1, 5-hour-walk

27. the Warsaw Chamber, where Prof. Leszek A. Dobrzański invited

28. for the Banquet Dinner.

29. During plenary session interesting lectures were presented by...

31. Prof. Emin Bayraktar (France),

32. Dr Anna Dobrzańska-Danikiewicz (Poland),

33. Prof. Bozo Smolan (Croatia),

30. Prof. Maria Helena Robert (Brazil),

35. and Prof. Antun Stoic (Croatia)

36. which caused the vivid discussions by Dr A.E. El-Mokadem (Egypt),

34. Prof. Borut Kosce (Slovenia),

37. Prof. Leszek Wojnar (Poland),

38. Prof. Jerzy Pacyna (Poland),

39. and Prof. Jerzy Okrajni (Poland),

40. continued also during the coffee break (Prof. Maria Helena Robert and Prof. Borut Kosce)

41. and the Poster Sessions,

42. opened on the behalf of the Conference Organisers by Dr Miroslaw Bonek

44. the exhibition of the professional literature.

43. which enjoyed the popularity not smaller than

45. In the evening on 15th June 2010

46. At the Mill Tavern

47. hosted the conference guests

49. and the guitar played by Mr Henryk Poloczek ate and talked vividly.

48. who to the accompaniment of highlanders' music

51. and Prof. Maria Helena Robert (Brazil)...

50. The conference was closed on 16th June 2010 by Prof. Leszek A. Dobrzański,

52. and Prof. Jerzy Nowacki (Poland) congratulated and thank the Organisers.

53. After last farewells - Prof. Andrzej Lis (Poland),

54. Prof. Bozo Smoljan (Croatia),

55. and last discussions (Prof. Emin Bayraktar - France, Dr Stanislaw Mandziej - the Netherlands, Dr Stanislaw Pawlak - Poland)

57. packing conference proceedings

56. and posing for photos,

59. remained to (here Ms Marzena Kraszevska, MA - the Secretary of the Programme and Organising Committee)

58. to the bus

60. the Organisers.