This special issue of the Journal of Achievements in Mechanical and Materials Engineering is one of three subsequently published in the Commemoration of the 20th Jubilee of the International Scientific Conference on Achievements in Mechanical and Materials Engineering "AMME" and is dedicated to Prof. Leszek A. Dobrzański – a Distinguished Professor of the Silesian Technical University, on the occasion of his 65th anniversary of birthday. Once again materials scientists of all over the world are blessed with the privilege to gather in a beautiful and warmth environment in this friendly country of Poland to exchange technical, scientific and life experiences. Such an opportunity, kindly provided by Prof. Leszek A. Dobrzański and his team of collaborators, this time in a wonderful venue by the Baltic Sea in north Poland, has been repeated in the last 20 years providing a unique chance to make long lasting research fellows and friends.
